YFLab d.o.o. (Slovenia)

At the YourFlare startup, that progressed into the company YFLab d.o.o., my initial task was to create a web app for clients to use as their main tool to interact with our product. Later on, we wanted to create a mobile app, so I took on that task and started the development of our mobile app in the Flutter framework.

After being a developer at the firm for less than a year, I was presented with the task of overseeing the development, along with the creation and maintenance of the internal tools used for business processes.
